

License Restrictions

Your usage of our software indicates your acceptance of this license agreement and warranty.

Generally you need as many licenses as you have machines and clients on which our software is available for execution.

One registered copy of our software may either be used by a single person who uses the software personally and non-simultaneously on up to three fix assigned computers, or it may be installed on a single workstation used non-simultaneously by multiple people, but not both.

You may access the registered version of our software through a network, assuming that you have obtained individual licenses for the software covering all physical workstations, servers and terminal clients that will be able to access the software through the network. For network access you will need one license for each user that will access the application or a site license.

A site-license allows you to use our software on all personal computers of one location or address. This is not a license per company, but by location or single building address only. If you want a companywide license covering multiple locations and addresses you need to purchase the Multi-Site license which grants you unlimited use at any company location owned and operated by the same company under the same name as the company who purchased the multi-site license. Company "A" cannot purchase a license and grant it to a subsidiary they own called Company "B", this requires purchase of a second multi-site license.

Distribution of the Software

The distribution of the full version to third parties is prohibited in any form, including selling, renting and loan, without prior authorization by STORWORKS Software. All distribution rights remain with the author. A non-authorized distribution of the software is an illegal act.

Updates & Support

Updates and support are included as part of general maintenance based on the period of time purchased with the original license. Professional Enterprise editions must have a valid and current license to continue using the software. If the license is allowed to expire you will have 30 days with basic functionality then the software will require an update to continue working. You will be able to purchase updates and renew support at a reduced price. Maintenance includes support by e-mail during our business hours.
